High performance. Delivered.

Accenture Brussels

I have been working for more than a year with Next Ventures, engaging SAP highly qualified resources.

I really appreciated our collaboration. Next Ventures has always been able to provide us on-time the people we needed even when we were looking for very difficult profiles.

Next Ventures is customer oriented, sometimes I had the feeling to be the only customer when you see how much they were focused on our requests.

The collaboration with Next Ventures is also very efficient: one single point of contact in the company, supportive with the administrative work, flexible, patient, ...

KPMG Italy

Next Ventures has supported us on several occasions and have always managed the recruitment process for Consultants in a very professional manner. They have continually delivered quality candidates at cost effective rates; it has been very rewarding to work in partnership with a competent, professional and cost-effective partner such as Next Ventures.

Getronics Italy

We value Next Ventures as a key partner; they have an excellent knowledge of the market and a professional approach to dealing with our requirements.

They have always delivered quality candidates within budget providing a first class service.

I would highly recommend Next Ventures as a reliable and competent partner.
